THE PRESIDENT

Born, Jasper, Tennessee; Educated in Maryville College, Maryville, Tennessee; Principal, St. Elmo High School; Principal, East Fifth Street School, Chattanooga, Tennessee; Founder and President, Tennessee Inter-Racial League; Past President, National Conference of Presidents of Land Grant Colleges; Former Vice-President, National Negro Business League; Honorary President, Tennessee Negro Education Association; Member of President Hoover's Housing Committee; Vice-President of Citizen's Savings Bank and Trust Company; Lecturer, National Education Association and Teachers College, Columbia University; Harmon Gold medalist, 1930; Member of N.E.A. Committee on Negro Education; Member of International Advisory Committee on Education; Member of National Advisory Committee of Delta Phi Delta; Jewel of Alpha Kappa Mu Honorary Fraternity; Charter member of Chi Boule of Sigma Chi Phi Fraternity; 1942 Recipient of gold key from Tennessee Chapter of New Farmers of America; Jewel of Lambda Eta Sigma Honor Society; Director, Negro Division, United States War Saving Bonds and Stamps Campaign in Tennessee.

W. J. Hale--A Victorious Leader

The career of President William J. Hale, as one of the outstanding educators of the nation, had its beginning in his decision to enter Maryville College, Maryville, Tennessee. His sterling leadership ability began to evince itself even at that early date, and the outstanding quality of work done while he was there was responsible for his being offered a position as teacher in his native town, Retro, Tennessee. From this modest beginning as a country school teacher, he next took a forward step by accepting the principalship of St. Elmo High School, located in a suburb of Chattanooga. Later he became principal of the East Fifth Street Grammar School in Chattanooga.

He was now definitely on the upward trend, but this field was too small for such a great character. Therefore, when in 1912 the members of the State Board of Education looked about them to seek a suitable president for the State College in Nashville, they designated him as their choice for this position. Leaving the outgrown shell of his former career behind him, he turned his face toward Nashville and thus began his long and colorful career as president of A. and I. State College. Upon assuming his responsibilities as president he met with many obstacles which would have discouraged the average man, but President Hale met each one with fortitude and courage. The ability of a strong character to withstand the winds of adversity was vividly demonstrated during the period of 1912 to 1920 when the institution was engaged in a struggle for its existence against overwhelming political odds. President Hale was faced with the necessity of defying not only a state governor, but also of denouncing representatives of the federal government in order that the institution might maintain its integrity and continue to function as a state endowed school for Negro youth. This he accomplished with such a degree of success that instead of becoming non-existent the school flourished until 1920, when the institution launched on a transition program by which it became a four-year teacher's college. Since that time liberal grants from the General Education Board of New York City and the Rosenwald Fund of Chicago have made it possible for the College to grow with phenomenal rapidity.

The Tennessee General Assembly has also been instrumental in the growth of the college through its appropriations for the institution. Today the institution with its million dollar plant, its efficient faculty, its enrollment of over a thousand students, representing over 37 states, its future program for developing A. and I. State College to the status of accredited undergraduate and post-graduate work for Negroes on the same standards as the University of Tennessee, stands as a living monument of what this peerless educator has done for his race.

Not only have the achievements of President Hale been recognized by the educational world, but they have also been recognized by the fraternal world as evinced by the fact that he is jewel of Lambda Eta Sigma, Alpha Mu Fraternity, charter member of Chi Boule of Sigma Chi Phi Fraternity and member of the National Advisory Committee of Delta Phi Delta. Further, he was awarded the LL.D. degree by Wilberforce University in 1936, and the LL. D. degree from Howard University in 1939.

One of the great honors of his educational career came to him on February 18, 1930, when he was awarded the Harmon Foundation Gold Award.

However, the crowning distinction of President Hale's life as an educator, as well as a citizen of his country, was bestowed upon him, when, in recognition of his contributions to his city, his state, and his country through the symbolizing of the school motto: Think, Work, Serve, he was appointed Chairman of the Negro Division of the War Saving Bonds and Stamps Drive for Tennessee. Through his efficient and patriotic leadership he has organized Tennessee State College and the community as a National Defense Unit, thus proving conclusively that under his guidance the Negroes of Tennessee will show to the world that they, too, are all out for Victory.

Thus the educational road that he travelled from Maryville College, as a student, to Tennessee A. and I. State College, as president, has been paved with one honor after the other, one achievement after the other, and one contribution after the other for his Race, his State and his Nation. What are his philosophies of life that have guided him in the panorama of achievements? Plato said: "Souls of men are fashioned by the things they see, feel and hear." May we say that the philosophies of President W. J. Hale began in Retro, for he chose the simple farm life as the theater of his thinking. As he grew older, philosophies were added, subtracted and modified as his experiences on the road of life grew numerous and complex. Let us pause to reflect over these philosophies by which we identify this great leader.

Amidst a war of free men against totalitarian shackles—a war for the survival of civilization—against paganism—a war of right against the forces that recognize no master and no incentive but greed and might—a war for the triumph of freedom's banner, as never before in the history of civilization, the eyes of the world are focused on leaders for guidance and direction so that America! the great! America the beautiful! may continue to enjoy life, liberty and pursuit of happiness—America focus your eyes on William Jasper Hale, a Victorious Leader.

The Class of '42

Upon our graduation day
Our homage we have come to pay
To this our school of great acclaim
We now do honor to thy name.

Our road was not an easy one
We had to struggle to go on
For things worth-while are not obtained
Or cheaply purchased—void of pain.

O! Alma Mater, Mother of Mine
Your constant service to mankind
Has helped this State, this Nation too,
Develop men and women true

To higher principles, nobler views
And love of duty did infuse.
Therefore today we sing thy praise
As now throughout the coming days.

We take our place in life's great game
And glorify our great school's name
That coming generations may
Enjoy the memories of this day.

Life now doth offer to each one
Whose work is found to be well done
A privilege to take his place
Among the leaders of this race.

—Marietta Moore,
Class of '42

Class Song

"The Class of '42"
(Tune: America, The Beautiful)

We love and cherish our dear class,
An strive to do the best
To make it ever eminent
And nobler than the rest.
And our dear class of '42
Will love and cherish you
Be faithful to our class colors
The red, and white, and blue.

From thee our Alma Mater dear,
We know we'll have to part
But no one else can emulate
Your place within our hearts
When we have passed beyond these gates
For your precepts we'll fight,
With that same fervor which defends
Our red and blue and white.

Alpha Kappa Mu

ALPHA KAPPA MU

Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society is an outgrowth of the National Federation of Honor Societies in Negro Colleges which held its initial meeting at A and I. State College during the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary, November 26, 1937. At the annual meeting of 1939 the present name was accepted, and since this time it has grown to include twenty-two chapters located in the various Negro colleges. Our campus chapter had as its forerunners Sais Society organized in 1918; Pi Kappa Nu in 1930; Phi Beta Tau in 1931. The latter name was retained for the local chapter, a privilege granted all charter members of Alpha Kappa Mu in 1939. At present Miss Ethel Holland is National Vice-President, and Dr. G. W. Gore, Jr., is a member of the National Executive Committee.

The purpose of Alpha Kappa Mu is to promote high scholarship; to encourage sincere and zealous endeavor in all fields of knowledge and service; to cultivate a high order of personal living; to develop appreciation for scholarly work and scholarly endeavor in others. Any junior or senior in the college whose cumulative average is 2.3 or above is eligible for membership.

Phi Beta Tau Chapter has sponsored as its major contributions to campus life "The Fine Arts and Lecture Series" which included monthly presentations of outstanding scholars in their respective fields; and has given special recognition in the form of a Dinner Dance to all students whose names appeared on the Honor Roll during the academic year.

THE VOLUNTEER FIRST AID DETACHMENT

The department of Health and Physical Education in cooperation with the Nashville Chapter of the American Red Cross, trains individuals for Civilian Defense.

The Red Cross Volunteer First Aid Detachment has the distinction of being one of the first of its kind to be certificated at a Negro institution of learning.

These students have completed both the Standard and Advanced First Aid Courses for Civilian Defense, and Air Raid Warden requirements.

The purpose of the Volunteer First Aid Detachment is to make available and effective in emergencies the services of persons trained in First Aid and in supplementary emergency procedures. These trained students are known and identified through the Detachment, and are a part of a planned organization functioning under adequate leadership. They are immediately available and close at hand to give assistance among those with whom they work or where they are located.

The Detachment is under the supervision of Mr. T. H. Hughes, III. (Mobile Unit A.R.C.)

Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority

Alpha Psi Chapter

Since the establishment of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority at Howard University in 1908 its membership has increased to more than 2000. High scholastic and ethical standards and the assumption of civic responsibilities underlie its program. Alpha Psi Chapter established at A. and I. on May 13, 1932 in celebrating its Tenth Anniversary reviews its efforts to contribute to campus life. Its "Welcome to A. and I." project of meeting trains and busses at the opening of each school year has been carried out for the past five years. Its representation in Alpha Kappa Mu scholastic society is greater than any other organization on the campus, at present including Ethel Holland, National Vice-President, Myrtle Banks, Gladys Burgess, Marie Grant. Its members are active in all phases of campus life, and as a result it received the History Study Club "Achievement Cup" at the 1941 commencement. During the present year its program has included the presentation of the first president of the Ivy Leaf Club of 1932, Miss Lois H. Daniel, as its Sunday School speaker; and for its annual vespers the presentation of one of its charter members, Mrs. Alma Dunn-Jones and her "Choric Speech Group" as a climax to the Tenth Anniversary Celebration. Our campus "Service Flag" honoring our State College men in training was made and presented by the chapter.

The Ivy Leaf Club

The extra-curricula activities sponsored by the students on our campus consist of programs of a cultural and social nature. During the year the Ivy Leaf Club of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority made definite contributions to this phase of campus life.

For its annual vesper program the Ivy Leaf Club presented a graduate of the college, S. E. Grinstead, who spoke on, "Self-Expression of the American Negro in Literature Since 1760." In conclusion of this event the pledge clubs of the various organizations were honored by a "Little Greek Medley."

The annual Easter Morning Sunday School consisted of a play, "The Risen Lord," in which every member participated enthusiastically. As usual all arrangements for the Easter Egg Hunt following the Service were made by the members of the club.

One hundred per cent cooperation was given to the various civic programs, such as the "March of Dimes," the "Red Cross," and the purchase of Defense Stamps.

Beta Omicron Chapter

Alpha Phi Alpha

Motto: "First of All, Servants of All, We Shall Transcend All."

Seven young men of Cornell University, 1906, founded the first Negro Fraternity, namely Alpha Phi Alpha. With a slogan of Scholarship, Fellowship and Devotion, the organization was soon established in other colleges until now there are one hundred and sixty-four chapters located in various parts of the United States and foreign countries. Among noteworthy activities sponsored by the fraternity are the "Go To High School—Go To College" movement and the "Education for Citizenship" campaign.

Twenty-four years later, in the year 1934, seven young men founded the fifty-sixth chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha, Beta Omicron. It was thus, therefore, the youngest "Frat" (locally). Since then it has helped mould high aims and ideals into the lives of many young men who have gone from the college to become leaders in all walks of life.

The Chapter at present has fifteen members, including many outstanding personalities. Brother William Earl Dickerson is a member of the Better Dormitory Club, Student Christian Association, Forensic Society, History Study Club, Tennessee State Players Guild. Brother William H. Powell, Jr. is a member of the Student Christian Association, N.F.A., Forensic Society. Brother Ulysses Wilhoite is President of the History Study Club, International Relations Club and Tennessee State Players Guild. Brother Joseph N. Stevens is Assistant Editor of the Sphinx, President of the Better Dormitory Club, Associate Secretary of the N.F.A., Member of the Forensic Society and a member of the State Players Guild. Brother Joseph Thomas is a member of the Forensic Society, Tennessee State Players Guild, Vice President of the Chemistry Club, Better Dormitory Club, Student Christian Association. Brother Clarence Johnson is a member of the History Study Club, International Relations Club. Brother R.B.J. Campbelle is a member of the History Study Club, Quill Club, Business Manager of Tennessee State Players Guild, Vice President of Junior Class, General Secretary of Ayeni Staff.

"As long as there is one man with the true spirit, Alpha Phi Alpha will go on."

Sphinx Club

The Sphinx Club of Beta Omicron Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity was organized on the Campus of A. and I. State College in 1934.

Symbolized by its emblem, the mighty Sphinx, the Sphinx Club is composed of men who are aspiring to become members of the Alpha Fraternity.

In keeping with its principles, the Sphinx Club cooperates in all of the activities of the campus, including Sunday School, Quiet Hour Services and Sunday Evening Vespers.

Kappa Alpha Psi

The fundamental purpose of Kappa Alpha Psi is achievement. It was with this purpose in mind that ten men at Indiana University on January 5, 1911 founded what is now known as Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity.

The Alpha Theta Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity was established at Tennessee A. and I. State College, May 23, 1931. Its existence has from this date been justified through the many activities which have been sponsored. The annual program of Kappa features on the campus this year are as follows: Kappa Kuntry Carnival, a medium through which 75 baskets of food were given less fortunate people during the Yuletide season; Sunday School, through which a new type of public program was instituted; Vesper Services; a $25 contribution to the Community Chest; Observance of Guide Right Week; a smoker for new students and freshmen and the annual spring dance, one of the most attractive affairs of the season.

Scrollers Club

The Scrollers Club of Alpha Theta Chapter was organized in 1930, and since that time, has successfully defended its reputation of being one of the outstanding pledge clubs.

They have distinguished themselves in sports, music, art and scholarship. From the rank of the Scrollers Clubs have come honor roll students, orchestra leaders, journalists and countless others of diversified talents.

Phi Beta Sigma

ZETA ALPHA CHAPTER OF PHI BETA SIGMA FRATERNITY

The Zeta Alpha Chapter of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity was founded on the Tennessee State College campus May 1, 1931 by Brother Chesler Owens and Alger V. Boswell. Acting members were Roger P. Bailey, Theocia O. Homer Carter, Searcy C. Harris and Walter L. Vickers.

The fraternity has as its motto, "Culture for Service and Service for Humanity;" its slogan, "Bigger and Better Business for Negroes."

National Business Week is set aside annually having as its theme the betterment of Negro businesses.

Under the auspices of the Zeta Alpha Chapter of the Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, a scholarship is given annually to the outstanding freshman or sophomore who best demonstrates his oratorical ability.

Fraternities act as a stimulant to keep the traditions of colleges and universities alive, and help to create loyal alumni.

Zeta Alpha Chapter has contributed much to the culture and social outlook at Tennessee State College. Some of the programs the organization features annually are:

1. Vesper Services—celebrating bigger and better businesses for Negroes.
2. Sunday School—celebrating Mothers' Day.
3. An oratorical contest—displaying Freshmen and Sophomores' oratorical talent.
4. A smoker for Freshmen and New Students.
5. An Annual Spring Dance, gala event of the year.

Omega Psi Phi

Rho Psi Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity enjoyed one of its most successful years during 1941-42. Seven new brothers were welcomed into the fraternity during the winter quarter and three more in the spring quarter.

It is very necessary that we mention certain brothers of our great fraternity who are now in Uncle Sam's Armed Forces: Brother Kennard Jones, who was president of the Senior Class of '42, along with Frank Thomas, Mose Davie, David Ulmer, James Woods, Theodore Lawson, Ned Nelley, Donald Officer, and others are now spreading the spirit of Omega in Army Camps throughout the country.

Special homage is paid to a true Brother and Adviser of Rho Psi Chapter, namely, Brother Josef C. James, who is now serving in the United States Army. Brother James is truly an asset to Rho Psi Chapter, and meets all requirements of a true Omega man.

Rho Psi Chapter regrets that it will lose its brothers via graduation in June. Those brothers graduating are: Brothers Leonard Thompson, Indianola Hayes, Halbert Dockins, Herbert Holmes, Louis Wilson, and Lovell Jones.

Rho Psi Chapter and the student body of A. and I. State College are glad to hear that Brother Walter Pinkston has regained his eyesight. Brother Pinkston was for three years one of the brightest students on A. and I. campus. Some of his campus achievements for his three years at State were: recipient of $50 Smith French Award; Writer and Director of five French Skits; Captain of Cheer Leaders; Organist; Pianist; honor student; President of Junior Class and Basileus of Rho Psi Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity.

Brothers Herbert Holmes and Calvin Gibson are planning to enter Meharry Medical College in the Fall of 1942.

The next annual Conclave will be held in Washington, D.C., during the holidays.

Brother Granville Rivers, a graduate of Rho Psi, was elected Grand Chaplain at the past conclave held in Indianapolis.

Lampados Club

The chief endeavor of the Lampados Club of Rho Psi Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity is the promotion of true manhood which is essential to all phases of life.

We have tried diligently to exemplify the four Cardinal Principles set forth by the Fraternity, namely, Manhood, Scholarship, Uplift, and Perseverance, and with all sincereness, we are proud to be brothers to such a great national organization.

The annual Sunday School Program, The Dinner Dansant, and the Birthday Celebration for our beloved Mrs. J. E. Elliott, were the major activities of the year.

TENNESSEE STATE COLLEGE NYA RESIDENT PROJECT

Approximately 60 young men and women between the ages of 16 and 24 are engaged in useful training through the only college resident project in Tennessee conducted by the National Youth Administration and operating at Tennessee A. and I. State College, Nashville, Tennessee.

The work program including household arts, sewing, woodwork, auto mechanics, electricity, plumbing, Carpentry, steam fitting, clerical work and other trades, has for its purpose the preparing of youth to fit into some gainful occupation in at least a two year period or less.

Courses which give related training to the work program including Hygiene, First Aid, Community Health, Designing and Music serve to enrich the youth's training. Miss Gwendolyn C. Hale, Health and Physical Education; Mrs. R. B. J. Campbell, Practical Home Economy and Government; and Mr. Charles Hunter, Home Making Art and Mechanical Drawing.

Mrs. C. M. Denney and Mr. Forrest Strange, project supervisors, along with directors and instructors are putting forth an effort through extra-curricular activities to give the trainee the same type of all-round development that could be secured through regular academic training. Nu Upsilon Alpha, a NYA organization, was created in the group in order to stimulate and further individual interest, achievement, scholarship and workmanship. Officers elected were: President, Milton P. Crook, Chattanooga; Vice-President, Thomas A. McDowell, Chattanooga; Secretary, Marguerite Davie, Clarksville; Assistant Secretary, Florine Butler, Pulaski; Treasurer, Charles Hickman, Chattanooga; and Chaplain, Rufus Taliaferro, Chattanooga.

Chequeta Dunscomb, Secretary; Evansville, Indiana.

Professor Merle R. Eppse, Adviser.

Library Science

The Library Science Department serves a two-fold purpose in the college curriculum. First, a general course emphasizing the efficient use of books and libraries may be taken by any student in the college and in either quarter as it is repeated. Second, twenty-four quarter hours or a minor is offered for the training of teacher-librarians. At least two courses are given each quarter, one on the junior level and one on the senior level, so that a student may begin a minor in his first quarter of his junior year and take one course each quarter thereafter until he completes the requirements at the end of his senior year. Mrs. M. M. Brown, Head Librarian and Miss Modestine Young, Circulation Librarian, assist in the supervision of the practice work.

The following students will complete a minor in the field during the Spring and Summer quarters 1942:

Willie Mae Bass, Frances Berry, Mildred Cater, Tulipe Claiborne, Chequeta Dunscomb, Margurite Goodall, Mary Griffin, Blanche Holt, Virginia Mae Mason, Grace Moore, Bertha Morrow, Ethel Mott, Mildred Powell, Emma Richards, Margaret Sherrill, Helen Sledge, Modestine Smith, Grace Lucile Spearman, Mary Frances Suggs.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION CLUB

In these times, when war is being fought all around us, we should become more health and physical education minded.

The aims of physical education at A. and I. State College:

1. To give in a suitable environment, to every group of individuals, vigorous muscular work of a type that is inherently interesting to that group.
2. To select types of work which also may be used to develop within the individual a disposition to strive for high social ideas.
3. To use at opportune times types of work that develop within the individual the power to quick aid, accurate thinking and doing.
4. To give preference to such types of work that lead to the acquiring of skill that is useful for recreation ends.
5. To have health instructions based upon scientific material progressively arranged throughout the grades and upper schools, and directed toward personal accomplishment and social ideas. Safety should be included in this instruction.
6. To have a physical education program for all individuals everyday, using activities that are educationally desirable, progressively graded and adapted to meet individual group needs.
7. Opportunities for the development of skills and interests in recreational hobbies that may range the entire curriculum, but centering most often in music; literature and drama; fine, plastic, and industrial arts; physical education; and various club activities of the school.

The physical education club strives to promote sportmanship rather than competition. In sponsoring this program the following sports are featured; Football, Basketball, Tennis, Ping-Pong, Volleyball, Softball, Badminton, Archery and Swimming.

ADOLESCENT PSYCHOLOGY CLASS

One-hundred sophomores, juniors and seniors, pursuing the course in Adolescent Psychology, selected for their class procedure, the laboratory method which was made possible by the splendid cooperation and participation of the Nashville Junior and Senior High Schools. On Saturdays, the adolescents visited the classes in Adolescent Psychology and rendered special programs, answered questions and presented their special abilities and talents.

Adolescents who are standing in the first row are displaying: 1. Industrial work by the model aeroplanes, 2. Home Economics by dresses and knitting, 3. Literary attainment by their prize-winning scrap-books, 4. Athletics by their lettered uniforms and bicycles, 5. Organization—Boy Scouts.

Schools and students representing these activities are: Palmer Walker, Jr., Ford Greene Elementary School; Catherine Murry, Elizabeth Allison, Helen Ballard, Hazel Box, Margaret Freeman, and Catherine Finley, Pearl High School; Nina Nesbitt, St. Vincent De Paul Catholic School; Angela Ross, Alvin Webster, Helen Dotson, Mary Willie Odessa Groves, Hayward Harrison, Felix Rucker, Phillip Hames Williams, James Stockard, Joe Pillow, Lionel Hall, Beutley Marshall, Luther Waters, Delores Goode, Mildred Collier, Seth Sharpe, William Watson, and George Moorman, Washington Junior High School; Mildred Bailey, Quenne Wright, Elloriz King, Darden Chrisman, Ben Winters, Lorena McCall, Calvin Summers, Charles Arnold, John Turner, Jr., Martha Robinson, Mary Jones, and Margaret Peaks, all of Haynes High School.

PROF. ZELMA REDMOND, Instructor

Quiet Hour

The idea of the present regular "Quiet Hour," on our campus came as a result of a Religious Emphasis Week that was held in the "Little Theater," in 1936. Slips of paper were passed to those present at the last meeting asking what could be done to continue the idea of quiet, calm worship throughout the year instead of one week a year. The suggestions came from many students present to have some form of worship, inviting speakers, group participation, etc. Hence the "Quiet Hour," was born through the desires and urges of students expressed on those bits of paper.

It has grown from a very few regular attenders for the first few years to more than one hundred regular worshippers each Wednesday evening from 6:00 to 6:30 p.m.

This period serves not only as an outlet, but also an intake of that which is high, holy, ennobling, satisfying.

We are grateful to President Hale who has ordered that all other meetings must be cancelled while "Quiet Hour" is in session.

"Quiet Hour" has no officers, no formal organization, its leadership rests with volunteer leadership that comes weekly from the worshippers.

L. B. Watson, Adviser.

Sunday School

The Sunday School under the faculty direction of Mr. R. E. Clay and Dr. G. W. Gore, Jr., is only one of the many opportunities afforded the student to enrich life through religion.

Monthly church, weekly prayer, Sunday vesper, and the Sunday school are regular phases of the religious program of the college.

Although attendance is not compulsory the Sunday School attracts one of the largest audiences of any assembly on the campus.

All organizations, sororities, social and departmental clubs cooperate with the Sunday School by sponsoring various types of programs throughout the year.

The Sunday School receives the hearty support and cooperation of President Hale who believes that the inspiration and stimulation thus received will be of inestimable value to students in an effort to evolve satisfying philosophies of life in a changing world.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

The Cabinet

The Sunday School Cabinet is composed of the officers of the Sunday School and faculty members who serve in the capacity of class instructors.

THE STUDENT CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

Formerly the Young Women's Christian Association and Young Men's Christian Association have functioned separately on our campus. Two years ago their efforts were combined into an organization known, in our college as well as the leading colleges of Nashville and many of the colleges of the country, as the Student Christian Association.

The Student Christian Association is a fellowship of men and women, working together to re-establish a spiritual basis for hope and courage, that through their united efforts a saner comradeship may be developed.

The work of the Student Christian Association functions through the following committees: Fellowship, International Relations, Worship, Recreation, Hobby, Social, Program, Membership and Charm School. The local organization has functioned through most of these committees.

This year our Student Christian Association has had visits from Local, National and International officers.

This year the Fellowship, Interracial and Social programs have brought most of the colleges of Nashville together in the form of programs and group participation on Fisk, Scarritt and our own college campus.

THE FORENSIC SOCIETY

The Forensic Society of Tennessee State College was organized on A and I. State College Campus, December 13, 1938 by its present sponsor—Professor John C. Ballard. The prime purpose of the organization is to train students to think logically and to speak extemporaneously on contemporary problems.

The Annual Freshman-Sophomore Debate was one of the outstanding events of the 1941-42 school year. The Freshman team was composed of Miss Cleopatra Hendrix of Waukeegan, Illinois, and Miss Gladys Crocker of Gary, Indiana, while on the Sophomore team appeared Mr. Lawrence McVoy of Pensacola, Florida, and Mr. William Russell of Russellville, Kentucky. mores tipped the scales for the judges' decision and were presented a beautiful silver-loving cup. This cup will remain at the college as a permanent trophy and will be awarded each year to the winning team in the Freshman-Sophomore contest.

The Society presented its annual vesper program on March 22, which took the form of a symposium centering about the topic: WHAT THE WAR MEANS TO US. The topic was discussed by prominent students in the institution—Misses Clarice Chambliss, Rena Thorbourne and Frances Curry and Messrs. Jessie Miller, Harry Scott, and Carlton A. Sparks. Miss Myrtle Banks, president of the Forensic Society, served as presiding officer. During the remainder of the school year, similar programs sponsored by the Society and seniors in the organization who had made contributions to the culture of the campus were presented the society's coveted key. The awarding of keys to graduating seniors is one of the annual features of the Tennessee State College Forensic Society.

Players Guild

TENNESSEE STATE PLAYERS GUILD

The Little Theatre Movement is promoted through the Department of Speech. The Tennessee State Players Guild is the dramatic workshop for all students who desire to participate in dramatic and speech activities. The purposes of the organization are: first, to stimulate a greater interest in the drama; second, to develop Negro folk drama; third, to develop Negro actors, playwrights, scenic designers and directors; and fourth, to present anything from the Greek drama to the plays of Clifford Odets.

The time comes in the development of organized life for a story—sometimes a beautiful story—and sometimes one that is not so beautiful. The North Wing Research Club tells its story of discovery.

Sunday, the 20th day of February, Nineteen hundred and forty, five faculty men sat talking—Let us tune in—Economics—Higher Education—Insurance—War—and the World of Tomorrow—After this kaleidoscopic treatment of international and domestic problems, the aforementioned club was founded.

The purpose of the organization is to stimulate discussion and research on problems of a general and professional nature.

THE DEPARTMENT OF ART

The College Cafeteria

The College Cafeteria holds a unique place in the program of school affairs. It is one of the many places on the campus that stands for efficiency and courteous service.

The reputation of successful management may be attributed to many causes. For approximately twenty years, Mrs. Janie Stanback Elliott has devoted her unselfish service to the cause of making "meal time" a "happy time." Foods of the best quality are prepared by student help under the direct supervision of Mrs. Elliott. Neat, clean and interested young men and women forming the "Personality Group" under the direction of the Department of Business Education, are responsible for the service and checking. The food is both attractive and wholesome as special care is given not only to how it looks, but to the nutritive value to be received.

Mrs. Elliott is assisted in this work by Mr. L. Tolliver, assistant manager and Miss Mabel Evans, instructor in institutional cooking. Chief among the student assistants are Mr. Donald K. Bently in charge of food preparation; Mr. James E. Farrell, assistant; and Mr. Clarence Johnson, in charge of the wholesale department and building.

The cafeteria has not only served the students and faculty, but it has extended its service to personalities of national and international character. The legislature meets biennially in Nashville, at which time it is the privilege of the college to entertain them at a luncheon in their honor. Various organizations including the New Farmers of America, the YWCA, the Tennessee Negro Education, National Conference of State Supervisors and Teacher Trainers in Agriculture and Home Economics, Meeting of Deans and Registrars, National meetings of Fraternities and Sororities, Ministers Alliance and others, have held elaborate banquets in the college cafeteria. Visitors from all sections of the country have shared in the hospitality the cafeteria offers.

CONCERT SINGERS

Concert Singers

For more than ten years the Concert Singers, under the direction of Mrs. Marie Brooks Strange, have carried their songs of goodwill throughout the State of Tennessee, as well as into other states of the Union. It is by means of their fine contacts that State College has made new and lasting friends. In 1932 and 1933, they sang at the Chicago World's Fair while thousands listened with enthusiasm. When Kagawa, the great Chinese educator, spoke to a packed house in Memphis some four years ago, these singers brought thunderous applause. St. Louis presented them in the large opera house during the meeting of the National Education Association in 1936. They appeared on the Tennessee Day program at the New York World's Fair, 1939, at which time they were broadcast over a nation-wide hook-up, and again by return invitation in 1940. The singers again appeared in St. Louis, in February, 1940, at the meeting of the National Education Association, where in the Gold Room of the Jefferson Hotel they rendered a program for the American Association of Teachers Colleges. In June, 1940, the singers made a triumphal tour through the Midwest which included engagements in Minneapolis, Minnesota, at the National Convention of the Kiwanis Clubs, in Chicago at the University of Chicago and at other educational institutions in Illinois and Indiana.

Networks from coast to coast have picked up their Columbia Broadcasting programs. The group has had regular appearances on the program, "Song Time in Tennessee." On numerous occasions, individual artists, selected from the group, have been featured on the radio.

Tours throughout the State are annually scheduled by the singers, at which time they are invited to appear before college and university audiences. Concerts in the city of Nashville have included George Peabody College for Teachers, Vanderbilt University, Scarritt College, the Hermitage Hotel, the Andrew Jackson Hotel, Chamber of Commerce and the meeting of the Governors of Southern States at the Governor's mansion.

The Concert Singers have sung to the President of the United States, Mr. Franklin D. Roosevelt and to four governors of Tennessee: Governor Hill McAlister, Governor Gordon Browning and the present Governor Prentice Cooper.

The group receives the hearty cooperation of the President of the College, Dr. W. J. Hale, who believes in developing the individual's special aptitude to the fullest of his capabilities.

Mrs. Marie Brooks-Strange, able director of the singers, gives untiringly of her time and energy in order to inspire her chorus to still greater achievement. The following expression from one of the leading educators of America bespeaks the general enthusiastic attitude with which the group is received:

"Indeed, I cannot recall any program ever presented in this institution during the twenty years of my connection here which has ever called for so much enthusiastic response from the students and faculty as well. I was expecting a great deal from your group, but I must confess that you exceeded even my highest expectations. The work you are doing in music at A. and I. State College ranks easily now among the high achievements of the Negro race in the United States, and I most warmly congratulate you and all others who have any part in this fine record."

The following members of the group have distinguished themselves. Forrest W. Strange, Silas Cephus Douglass, Gwendolyn C. Hale, Lottie Springs-Smith, Alexander Carney, Louis C. Tolliver, William Gillespie, Inge Hardison, Modestine Young, Laura Edmonds-Clay, Olivia Lane Jones, Benton A. Adams and Hilda McGill-Taylor.
